THE PRESIDENTS CORNER

I'm out of the gate a bit early because, unfortunately, Joan Bové has been battling pneumonia and although she is recuperating as fast as she can, getting out and about is simply not an option right now.. Sorry I couldn't share today with her. She's been a good mentor and I wish her a speedy recovery. It is with much appreciation and pride that I follow in the footsteps of the past Presidents of Newcomers of Central Florida. I have met many of them and am pleased to be in such good company. Thank you ladies for your guidance and example. It was so nice to be able to celebrate with Dru Juhl, Margie Simmons, Linda Selby, Lynne Snowden and Helen Terefinko. I especially want to thank Joan Bové and Lynne Snowden for sitting down with me and encouraging me with kind words and good advice.

Linda Selby and Judy Babine did a magnificent job of organizing the Installation ceremony. These women are so creative and dedicated to preserving the wonderful traditions of Newcomers. The "sweet " theme was a lot of fun and the extra calories were worth it. All the ladies got a big kick out of guessing the jelly beans, singing along to "sweet" songs, and laughing at Linda's jokes. Judy, thank you for being you. You're always there to help out and keep things on an even keel. I know I can count on you to keep me focused and jump start my memory when it decides to take a short nap.

Pat Fluno did a magnificent job of running the meeting and the procedures. I hope I do as well next month when I'm officially "it". Pat moves on to the daunting task of being the Chatter editor. She has the talent and dedication that will guarantee a quality product. Speaking of thanks, it was so nice to be able to show our appreciation to Lynne Snowden for all the years she has been associated with Newcomers. She never refused to step up and take over the difficult jobs. This club is now 20 years old and much of the success of that longevity is due to Lynne and her mother, Netta. God Bless them both.

My thanks also to Martha Cirrotti and Gloria Irwin, our luncheon VP's, who always come through with a delightful venue for our luncheons. Café Murano outdid itself. The food was tasty and hot. The room was comfortable and the service was courteous and efficient. Can't beat that.

Judy's report on the Bayhill earnings was fabulous. The amount raised ($1,150.00) was worth any and all bumps in the road. I know I'm looking forward to working there again next year.

Several door prizes were enjoyed by our members but the grand prize for the Sweet Installation was the best. It was a Candy Land Game that Donna Miller won. Call me Donna. I still remember how to play.

Speaking of winners, Charlotte Becker went home very happy with the 50/50 prize of $81.50. Our 50/50 sellers DeDe and Marge did another outstanding job. They make you feel happy to turn your money over to them. Now that's good business. My guest and new member, Lisa Batcho, was pleasantly surprised to win the free luncheon. Congratulations to both Charlotte and Lisa.

I wish a fond farewell and thank you to the departing members of the Executive Board and committees. You ladies did a wonderful job. Our new Executive Board and committees for 2011-2012 are made up of absolutely delightful and hard-working women. I am so pleased to be able to work closely with them.

I still ran around with my camera taking pictures. I guess that's going to be a hard habit to break. It's difficult for me to remember to be in front of the camera instead of behind it.

Oh well, I'll learn how to be the President eventually. Take care my friends. I'll see you in June.

The other Joan.

June 21—Wench by Dolen Perkins-Valdez

An original novel based on true but little known fact. The book tells the story of four enslaved black women in the years preceding the Civil War. Their paths cross as they meet up every summer at a resort popular with slave owners who brought their mistresses. It is a startling page turner.

July 19 - Almost Home by Pam Jenoff

Ten years ago, American Jordan Weiss's idyllic life as a graduate student and coxswain at Cambridge was shattered when her boyfriend and fellow crew member, Jared Short, drowned in the River Cam the night before the biggest race of the year. Since that time, Jordan, a State Department intelligence officer, has traveled the world on dangerous assignments but has avoided returning to face her painful memories in England. When her terminally ill friend Sarah asks her to come to London, though, Jordan returns. Shortly after her arrival in London, she is approached by a former college classmate who makes the startling assertion that Jared's death was not an accident, he was murdered. Jordan learns that Jared's death was indeed not an accident, and that his research on World War II had uncovered a shameful secret. But powerful forces with everything to lose will stop at nothing to keep the past buried. Soon, Jordan finds herself in grave peril as she struggles to find the answers that lie treacherously close to home, the truth that threatens to change her life forever, and the love that makes it all worth fighting for.
