Joan's Journal

Hi Ladies,
Wasn't it nice to be back at Stoneybrook Country Club again? That venue has always been one of my favorites, and they didn't let us down... good food, good service and the company of good friends. I guess that's what these monthly "get-togethers" are all about. As always, it was good to see some friends I don't see often enough. Thanks Gloria and Martha... good job.

Our speaker was interesting... and did you know he came from Paterson, NJ! I was also surprised at how many people and products got their start in Paterson. Who knew? He's had an interesting career. Were you disappointed to hear that shows like CSI don't really portray things as they really are? Makes for good TV though, doesn't it? You've done it again, Pat...another interesting program.

We have some nice restaurants and programs lined up for the last few months of the year, and I hope you will be joining us. Maison & Jardin for next month has also been a favorite of ours, and the "teacup auction" is always fun. Don't forget to bring your unwrapped item, and get ready to yell BINGO! Sounds like a fun day. It was a hit last year.

The Winter Park Art Festival has always been a favorite of mine, and I am looking forward to visiting it again. Art is thrilled that I may be going with the ladies and he doesn't have to go again. He says it's too expensive, and he's right, but it is fun.

April's trip to Mt. Dora sounds like another fun day. Thanks, gals.

Thanks to Rosemary Kubanet for stepping in at the last minute and offering to have Pot Luck at her home. It was a small group but we had a very nice evening. Mike Frazier will be our hostess for March, so call early to get your assignment.

Also, it was good to see Beth Zelikoff at Hooked on Books again...it's been too long. We had two new ladies join us and that helps to have a lively conversation.

How could I forget the Valentine's dance? What a great evening! Our thanks to Aileen and Betsy.

Hope you ladies have a fun time with your massages at Let's Do It. The idea is certainly original. If it works out well... maybe you can arrange it again, Pat.

PLEASE.... contact Judy if you are able to volunteer at Bay Hill. She needs all the help she can get. I'm sure she will try to arrange a time convenient for you. It's a fun day... and the proceeds will benefit our club and our charity... The Russell Home for Atypical Children.

BOARD MEETING

Thursday, March 3, 2011 at 10am

Perkin's Restaurant, E. University

Please RSVP to Joan @ 407-971-3911 or reply via email.

I'm disappointed that we will not be having Game Day next month. It's a project near and dear to my heart, and we were able to donate a sizable amount of money to the Russell Home last year. We tried, because I think everyone has enjoyed working on the committee; however, it just didn't work out logistically.

How about Nancy Small winning $84 at 50/50. Nancy is our newest member, having just joined at today's luncheon. Way to go, Nancy, and WELCOME.

Congratulations are in order for Barbara Wiseman. She can look forward to a free luncheon of her choice.

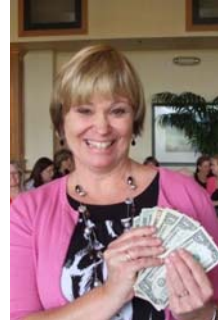

Hope you all had a Happy Valentine's Day. Thanks for the goodies on the tables, Martha...very thoughtful.

Don't forget to wear green next month. And... that's it for now. Be well my dear friends. See you next month... fun things are coming up.

In friendship.... Joan

Barbara Wiseman won the free lunch.

Guest & new member Nancy Small won the 50/50 prize of $84.

Birthday ladies: Mary Jane Godfrey, T. Kay White, Robin McLaren and Eileen Guesman.

Gloria Irwin and Pat Fluno welcome the speaker, Raul Santiago-Velez.

Brenda Jones poses with Pam Richards, who became a new member at the February luncheon. Welcome, Pam.

Judy Babine gave the Inspiration message this month, a tribute to volunteerism.

Beulah Ali-Carr is one of our newer members. Welcome!

Nancy Jaeger and Regina Barker were in charge of our informal book exchange. Be sure to bring your used books to the luncheon next month.

The Art of Racing In The Rain By Garth Stein

A heart-wrenching, funny and ultimately uplifting story of family, love, loyalty, and hope, The Art of Racing in the Rain is a beautifully crafted and captivating look at the wonders and absurdities of human life...as only a dog could tell it. Enzo knows he is different from other dogs: a philosopher with a nearly human soul (and an obsession with opposable thumbs), he has educated himself by watching television extensively, and by listening very closely to the words of his master, Denny Swift, an up-and-coming race car driver. Through Denny, Enzo has gained tremendous insight into the human condition, and he sees that life, like racing, isn't simply about going fast. Using the techniques needed on the race track, one can successfully navigate all of life's ordeals.

On the eve of his death, Enzo takes stock of his life, recalling all that he and his family have been through. Enzo comes through heroically to preserve the Swift family, holding in his heart the dream that Denny will become a racing champion with daughter Zoë at his side. This novel has been translated into 23 languages and it's also headed for a movie adaptation thanks to "Grey's Anatomy" actor Patrick Dempsey, with a projected release in 2012.

April 19 – Cutting for Stone by Abraham Verghese

A compelling read that is richly written, this novel shows how history and landscape and accidents of birth and death conspire to create the story of a single life. It is an unforgettable tale of love and betrayal and forgiveness. A medical romance —surgery meets history. The writing is graceful, the characters compassionate and the story is full of wisdom.
